

STEM Symposium

WHO: New Mexico K–12 Teachers of Science, Technology, Engineering and/or Mathematics (must have a valid teaching license and be employed in a NM Public School or NM Public Charter School)

WHEN: May 29–30, 2015
8:00 am – 4:30 pm

WHERE: Embassy Suites, Albuquerque
1000 Woodward Place

REGISTRATION:

FREE

FACTS:

- Stipend to assist with travel will be paid to a New Mexico teacher who lives outside a 50 mile radius of Albuquerque, (based on district numbers) and is a:
  - Elementary Teacher (K–6) who teaches math and science as part of their instruction; or,
  - Grade 7–12 teacher whose majority of course assignments are in Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics.
- A link to book your room will be sent after confirmation of registration. Room rates will be $83/night and qualifying teachers will be reimbursed for their lodging.
- Breakout sessions geared to content and grade-levels
- Night at the Museum experiential learning and social, Friday evening from 6:00 – 8:00 pm. Family members welcome!

Detailed Agenda and More Information Forthcoming

Register by scanning the QR code or clicking the link below:

Register HERE

For questions, please email Tammy Zumwalt at tzumwalt@swrecnm.org

